Elena Salmistraro

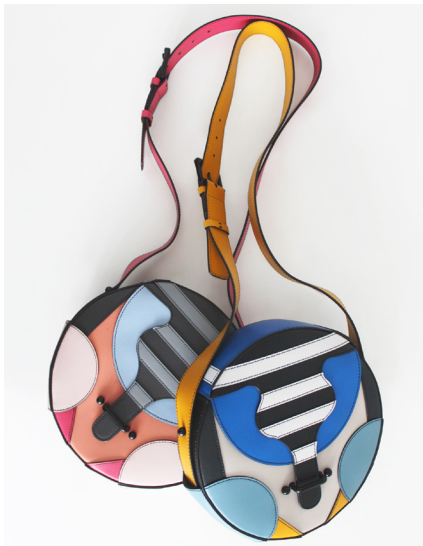

Product designer ed artista, vive e lavora a Milano. Si laurea in industrial design al Politecnico di Milano e nel 2009 fonda il proprio studio che si occupa di architettura e design, collaborando come product designer e illustratrice con molte aziende dell'industria creativa. È interessata allo sviluppo di un lavoro che si collochi a cavallo tra illustrazione, design e arti visive, mediante il quale intende definire un personale codice comunicativo. Tra le priorità delle sue creazioni, spiccano l'attenzione al dettaglio e la ricerca armonica delle forme, inseguite nell'antropomorfismo e nel primitivismo. Un eccesso di simboli grafici offre all'oggetto un'immagine stereoscopica trasportandolo in un territorio sospeso tra fantasia e realtà.

She is interested in developing work that combines illustration, design and visual arts, through which she intends to define a personal code of communication. Among the priorities of her creations, emerge attention to detail and the harmonious search for forms pursued in anthropomorphism and primitivism. An excess of graphic symbols gives the object a stereoscopic image, transporting it into a territory suspended between fantasy and reality.

NEW

Colori vivaci e segni primitivi per una maniglia che rimanda al variopinto mondo animale. Un metamorfismo e una leggerezza intrinseca che sono proprie del mondo delle farfalle e diventano tratto distintivo di una maniglia funzionale ma sempre pronta a librarsi in volo.

Vibrant colours and primitive signs come together in a handle that reflects the world of animals. It captures the essence of metamorphosis and inherent lightness, reminiscent of butterflies, becoming the distinctive feature of a functional handle that is always ready to take flight.

NEW

Più essenziale nelle forme e nei colori, più compatta nei volumi. La maniglia Crisalide nella versione mini recupera un minimalismo sofisticato, grazie al frontale in porcellana incorniciato dal profilo metallico e all'assenza della sfera nella parte terminale della leva.

More essential in forms and colours, and with more compact dimensions. Crisalide in its mini version embodies a sophisticated minimalism, thanks to a porcelain front framed by a metal profile, and to the absence of the sphere at the end of the lever.

white

Segni leggeri e delicati, onde morbide e superfici tattili sofisticate per una maniglia dall'immagine rétro che si ispira alla bellezza casuale della sabbia mossa dal vento. Linee sinuose che rendono la superficie tridimensionale e sicura la presa. Nella versione bianca per un'eleganza assoluta e senza tempo.

Light and delicate signs, soft waves, and sophisticated tactile surfaces for a handle with a retro aesthetic, drawing inspiration from the random beauty of wind-swept sand. The sinuous lines create a three-dimensional surface and ensure a secure grip. In its white version, it exudes absolute and timeless elegance.

Un colore di tendenza, che richiama al mondo della natura e impreziosisce la leva grazie al dialogo con le finiture dell'ottone. Dune, nella versione verde menta, aggiunge ulteriore morbidezza all'immagine e grazie al continuo alternarsi di luci e ombre.

A trendy colour that draws inspiration from the natural world and enhances the lever by harmonizing with the brass finishes. In its Mint Green version, Dune adds an extra level of softness to the overall aesthetic, with its continuous interplay of lights and shadows.
